How the IGDA Benefits You

With over 10,000 members, the IGDA is the world's largest professional association serving the people who make games. Our mission is to advance the careers and enhance the lives of game developers around the world, and to advocate on issues that impact the game creation industry.

The IGDA empowers your success in the following ways:

Knowledge

The IGDA delivers essential career development information and experience through a mix of global and grassroots methods.

- Local problem-solving and inspirational lectures are provided through Chapter Meetings;
- The IGDA Leadership Forum brings the best of our global speakers together to share their challenges, solutions, and visions for the future;
- IGDA online mailing list communities provide a central location to share questions and answers in between the live events;
- IGDA whitepapers provide a wealth of solutions for individuals and studios on practical issues such as IP rights, contracts, and best practices -- enriching developers and educating the general public.

Community

The IGDA serves as a company-neutral central organization for debating and forming policies and best practices for the game industry as a whole.

- Special Interest Group discussions enable focused problem solving for unique technical challenges, emerging areas of entrepreneurship, and social issues;
- Networking roundtables, workshops, and receptions at all leading game industry events;
- Personal membership card, conferring access to members-only events.

Resources

The IGDA is your extension for game industry answers and discounts beyond those offered by your company.

- Discounts and professional credentialing for GDC, GDC Europe, E3, and the IGF
- Discounts on all major professional game development books, GDC proceedings, and Game Institute classes;
- Advanced web resources and online professional networking via the new IGDA Webinar Series.
